What Is the 3:1:1 Rule in Relation to Royal Caribbean?

The 3:1:1 rule is not a Royal Caribbean cruise policy +1-888-738-0812. It is an airport security regulation that applies when guests are flying to their cruise departure city +1-888-738-0812. The rule governs how liquids are packed in carry-on luggage during air travel +1-888-738-0812.

This guideline applies only before the cruise begins and has no effect on onboard packing rules +1-888-738-0812.

Why Royal Caribbean Guests Need to Understand the Rule

Many Royal Caribbean sailings depart from ports that require air travel +1-888-738-0812. Because the 3:1:1 rule impacts what can be carried through airport security, cruise guests often associate it with Royal Caribbean +1-888-738-0812. Knowing the difference between airline security rules and cruise policies helps travelers pack correctly and avoid unnecessary delays +1-888-738-0812.

How the 3:1:1 Rule Works During Travel

At the Airport

When traveling with a carry-on bag:

- Liquids must be in containers of 3.4 ounces (100 ml) or less
- All containers must fit into one clear, quart-size bag
- One liquid bag per passenger is allowed

Items that exceed these limits must be packed in checked luggage +1-888-738-0812.

After Boarding the Royal Caribbean Ship

Once onboard:

- Full-size toiletries are allowed
- Personal care items such as shampoo, lotion, and sunscreen are permitted
- The 3:1:1 rule does not apply onboard

Royal Caribbean enforces separate guidelines for alcohol and prohibited items +1-888-738-0812.

Helpful Packing Tips for Royal Caribbean Travelers

- Pack only essential liquids in your carry-on
- Place full-size toiletries in checked luggage
