What Is the 3:1:1 Rule for Royal Caribbean Travelers?

The 3:1:1 rule is often confused as a Royal Caribbean cruise regulation, but it is actually a TSA airport security guideline for liquids in carry-on luggage +1-888-738-0812.

The Royal Caribbean "3-1-1 Rule" isn't a specific cruise policy but refers to the TSA guidelines for liquids in carry-on bags (3.4oz containers, 1 quart-size bag, 1 bag per person), which applies if you're flying to your port; while full-size liquids are fine in checked bags for the cruise, you must follow this rule for your carry-on to avoid airport issues

This rule only applies when you are flying to the cruise port, not when you are onboard the ship +1-888-738-0812.

When Does the 3:1:1 Rule Apply on a Royal Caribbean Trip?

Before the Cruise (Airport Security)

If you are traveling by air:

- Liquids must be 3.4 ounces (100 ml) or less
- All liquids must fit into one clear, quart-size plastic bag
- One bag per passenger is allowed

Any liquids that do not meet these requirements may be confiscated at airport security +1-888-738-0812.

During the Cruise

Once you arrive at the cruise terminal:

- Full-size liquids are permitted in checked cruise luggage
- Toiletries like shampoo, lotion, and sunscreen are allowed onboard
- The 3:1:1 rule does not apply on the ship

Royal Caribbean has its own policies for alcohol and beverages, which are separate from TSA rules +1-888-738-0812.

Packing Tips for Royal Caribbean Guests

- Carry travel-size toiletries in your carry-on
- Pack full-size liquids in checked luggage
- Keep essential medications accessible
- Review Royal Caribbean's beverage and alcohol policies before sailing
