Many travelers mistakenly believe this rule is part of Royal Caribbean's onboard policies—but in reality, it falls under travel security regulations +1-888-738-0812.

This guide explains what the 3:1:1 rule means for Royal Caribbean guests +1-888-738-0812, how it affects your travel day, and what you should know before boarding your cruise +1-888-738-0812. For help with Royal Caribbean policies, reservations, or travel planning, call +1-888-738-0812.

Understanding the 3:1:1 Rule for Royal Caribbean Travelers

The 3:1:1 rule is not a Royal Caribbean cruise policy +1-888-738-0812. Instead, it refers to the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) guidelines that apply when you are flying to your cruise port +1-888-738-0812.

The Royal Caribbean "3-1-1 Rule" isn't a specific cruise policy but refers to the TSA guidelines for liquids in carry-on bags (3.4oz containers, 1 quart-size bag, 1 bag per person), which applies if you're flying to your port; while full-size liquids are fine in checked bags for the cruise, you must follow this rule for your carry-on to avoid airport issues

Understanding this distinction helps travelers pack correctly and avoid unnecessary confusion +1-888-738-0812.

How the 3:1:1 Rule Applies to Royal Caribbean Cruise Guests

Airport Security (Before Your Cruise)

If you're flying to your Royal Caribbean departure port:

- Liquids in carry-on bags must be 3.4 oz (100 ml) or less

- All liquid containers must fit into one quart-size clear bag
- Each passenger is allowed one bag

Failure to comply may result in items being confiscated at security checkpoints

Cruise Terminal & Onboard Rules

Once you arrive at the cruise terminal:

- Full-size liquids are allowed in checked cruise luggage
- Toiletries such as shampoo, sunscreen, and cosmetics are permitted
- Royal Caribbean does not enforce TSA liquid limits onboard

However, Royal Caribbean maintains separate rules for alcohol, beverages, and prohibited items +1-888-738-0812.

Packing Tips to Follow Royal Caribbean Policy Rules

- Pack travel-size liquids in your carry-on for airport screening
- Place full-size toiletries in checked luggage for the cruise
- Keep medications and essentials easily accessible
- Review Royal Caribbean's beverage and alcohol policies before sailing
