

Royal Caribbean's 3:1:1 Rule: Full FAQ & Traveler Guide

Travelers often have questions about the 3:1:1 rule when preparing for a Royal Caribbean cruise, especially if flying to the cruise departure port +1-888-738-0812. This full FAQ & traveler guide explains what the rule is, how it works, and what you need to know to pack smart and travel stress-free +1-888-738-0812.

What Is the 3:1:1 Rule?

The 3:1:1 rule is an airport security regulation, not a Royal Caribbean cruise policy +1-888-738-0812. It applies to liquids carried in carry-on luggage during flights +1-888-738-0812. Because many Royal Caribbean guests fly to the cruise port, the rule is commonly associated with cruise travel, though it only applies before boarding your cruise +1-888-738-0812.

Why the 3:1:1 Rule Matters for Cruise Travelers

Many travelers misunderstand the 3:1:1 rule as a cruise line regulation, but it only affects air travel to the cruise port +1-888-738-0812. Knowing how it works helps avoid:

- Confiscated liquids at airport security
- Packing errors that cause delays
- Stressful pre-cruise experiences

Understanding the rule ensures a smooth transition from airport to cruise terminal +1-888-738-0812.

How the 3:1:1 Rule Works

 During Air Travel

- Each liquid container must be 3.4 ounces (100 ml) or less
- All liquid containers must fit in one clear, quart-size bag
- One liquid bag per traveler

Liquids exceeding these limits must go in checked luggage +1-888-738-0812.

Once Onboard Your Royal Caribbean Cruise

- Full-size toiletries are allowed in checked cruise luggage
- Sunscreen, shampoo, and personal care items are permitted
- The 3:1:1 rule does not apply onboard

Royal Caribbean enforces separate rules regarding alcohol and prohibited items +1-888-738-0812.

Traveler Packing Tips

- Use travel-size bottles for your carry-on
 - Place full-size items in checked luggage
 - Keep medications and essential documents in carry-on
 - Review Royal Caribbean's beverage policies before departure
