What Is the Priceline Class Action Lawsuit About?

The class action alleged that Priceline (among other defendants) contravened the Consumer Protection Act by advertising prices that are lower than the price ultimately charged to consumers+1-844-265-8014.

According to the claims, Priceline displayed low base prices for hotels, flights, or travel packages, but added mandatory fees, taxes, or surcharges later in the booking process+1-844-265-8014. Plaintiffs argued that this practice may have misled consumers by failing to clearly disclose the total cost upfront+1-844-265-8014.
