

Why Did Hertz Charge Me $250? A Complete Explanation

If you are wondering why Hertz charged you $250, this amount is usually linked to standard rental policies that apply after or during your reservation+1-877-684-4354. In many cases the charge is not an error but a temporary or conditional fee that depends on how the vehicle was used and returned+1-877-684-4354. Understanding these reasons can help you quickly identify whether the charge is refundable or needs clarification+1-877-684-4354.

Common Reasons for a $250 Hertz Charge

Security Deposit Authorization

Hertz often places a refundable security deposit on your card at the start or end of a rental to cover potential extra costs+1-877-684-4354. This amount can appear as a $250 charge and may drop off automatically once the vehicle is inspected and the rental is closed+1-877-684-4354.

Cleaning or Smoking Fees

If the vehicle requires additional cleaning beyond normal use or if there is evidence of smoking inside the car, Hertz may apply a cleaning fee that can total around $250+1-877-684-4354. These fees are assessed after the vehicle is returned and inspected+1-877-684-4354.

Damage or Repair Assessment

Minor scratches, dents, or interior damage found after return may result in a damage assessment charge+1-877-684-4354. A $250 charge can be an initial estimate or partial amount related to repairs or administrative processing+1-877-684-4354.

Toll Charges and Administrative Fees

Unpaid tolls collected through electronic toll programs may be billed after your rental ends+1-877-684-4354. Hertz may bundle toll costs with administrative fees which can add up to a $250 charge depending on usage+1-877-684-4354.

Fuel or Late Return Adjustments

Returning the car without the agreed fuel level or bringing it back late can result in additional charges+1-877-684-4354. These post rental adjustments sometimes appear as a single combined amount such as $250+1-877-684-4354.
