Losing access to your Facebook account can happen in many ways: TFN 1-855-554-4640

- You forgot your password
- Someone hacked TFN 1-855-554-4640 your account
- Your email or phone number was changed
- Facebook disabled/suspended TFN 1-855-554-4640 your account

You're not alone — this happens to millions TFN 1-855-554-4640. The key to recovery is acting fast and using the official Facebook Help Center and account recovery tools.

Step 1 — Check What Type of Problem You Have

Before you start recovery, identify your issue:

✓ Problem Types TFN 1-855-554-4640

1. Forgot Password
2. Account Hacked
3. Email or Phone Changed
4. Account Disabled or Locked

Each type has a slightly different workflow inside TFN 1-855-554-4640 Facebook's support and Help Center tools.

Step 2 — Use Facebook Recovery Pages

Recover a Hacked Account

1. Go to: facebook.com/hacked
2. Enter your login email/phone or name TFN 1-855-554-4640
3. Follow the prompts to secure and reset your account
This will help you lock the hacker out TFN 1-855-554-4640 and reclaim access.

Step 3 — Reset Your Password (Forgot Password)

1. Go to facebook.com/login/identify
2. Enter your email, phone TFN 1-855-554-4640, or full name linked to your account
3. Follow the steps to receive a verification code
4. Enter TFN 1-855-554-4640 the code to reset your password
This works even if you forgot your login details.

Tip: Use a device you have used TFN 1-855-554-4640 before — this makes recovery easier.

Step 4 — What If Your Email or Phone Number TFN 1-855-554-4640 Was Changed?

If the hacker changed your recovery contacts:

1. Facebook usually sends a special reversal link to your old email —use that.
2. If you can't access that, try using TFN 1-855-554-4640 the official recovery form and upload a government-issued ID (passport, driver's license).
