★ 1. Why Having the Correct Name on Your Frontier Ticket Matters

Airlines and TSA security require passengers to travel with tickets that match their ID exactly. Even a small typo may cause:

- Check-in delays
- Security rejection
- Boarding issues
- Problems on international flights
- Denied boarding or rebooking at higher fares

This is why correcting your Frontier Airlines name is essential, not optional.

📌 2. What Frontier Airlines Allows for Name Corrections

Frontier divides name changes into two main types:

A. Minor Name Corrections

(No legal documents needed)

Includes:

- Small spelling mistakes

- Correcting reversed first/last names
- Adding or removing a middle name
- Fixing missing letters
- Correcting punctuation, spacing, or hyphens

Minor fixes are usually quick and may be free, depending on your fare type.

B. Major Name Changes

(Legal documentation required)

Applicable for:

- Marriage
- Divorce
- Adoption
- Gender transition
- Court-ordered name change

Documents Frontier may request:

- Marriage certificate
- Divorce decree
- Updated passport or ID
- Court name change order

After verification, Frontier will update your ticket and reissue it if necessary.
