Steps to Escalate a Complaint with United

1. Start with Standard Customer Support

Always begin with United's regular customer service. Explain your issue clearly and provide all necessary details. If the agent cannot resolve the matter, politely mention that you may need to escalate the complaint. Calling {{ +1+{877}-{629}-{0806} }} at this stage can help you get quicker initial support.

2. Request a Supervisor

If the first representative can't help, ask for a supervisor. Supervisors have more authority to make decisions, approve refunds, or resolve issues faster. When contacting {{ +1+{877}-{629}-{0806} }} and asking directly for a supervisor, you often shorten the process.

3. Use United's Formal Complaint Form

If everything else fails, you can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Transportation. This step pressures the airline to act quickly. Before taking that route, try contacting {{ +1+(877)-(629)-(0806) }} at least once more to push for resolution.
