Madhi is a simple man with a regular job and a pile of EMIs. His parents want him to marry soon. But every match ends in disaster. One day, he meets Mithra, a cheerful and bold woman who seems perfect. Their chemistry is instant, but their personalities clash often.

As they try to make the relationship work, a nosy cop gets involved due to their constant public fights. The story turns chaotic with misunderstandings, family drama, and unexpected twists. Through all the madness, Madhi and Mithra learn what love really means. The film ends on a sweet note, showing that love is not perfect—it's about growing together.

Cast

Priyadarshi Pulikonda plays Madhi, a middle-class man juggling work, family pressure, and his own awkwardness. Anandhi portrays Mithra, a lively and independent woman who challenges Madhi's ideas about love. Suma Kanakala makes a strong comeback as Madhi's mother, adding warmth and comic timing. The supporting cast includes quirky friends, nosy neighbors, and a meddling cop who adds to the chaos. Each character adds flavor to the story, making it feel real and entertaining.

Final Words

Premante (2025) is a refreshing Telugu rom-com with heart and humor. Priyadarshi and Anandhi bring charm and chaos to the screen. The film explores modern love with a traditional twist. With relatable characters and funny situations, it offers a feel-good experience. If you enjoy romantic comedies with emotional depth, Premante is worth watching.
