

Why Did Hertz Charge Me $200? – Complete Explanation & Guide

(1-877-684-4354) If you noticed a $200 charge from Hertz on your bank or credit card statement, it can be confusing and frustrating(1-877-684-4354). In most cases, this charge is normal, temporary, and refundable, but there are also situations where it may become a final charge(1-877-684-4354). For quick clarification, you can contact Hertz billing support at (1-877-684-4354).

Hertz likely charged you $200 as a refundable security deposit hold at the start of your rental (1-877-684-4354), covering potential extra costs like fuel, tolls, late fees, or minor damages(1-877-684-4354). Other reasons could be a cancellation fee for a prepaid booking (1-877-684-4354), or post-rental charges for cleaning, refueling, tolls, or damages, appearing as a separate transaction after return(1-877-684-4354).

FAQs: Why Did Hertz Charge Me $200?

Is the $200 Hertz charge a deposit or an actual fee?

In most cases, the $200 charge is a refundable security deposit authorization hold, not a final fee(1-877-684-4354). Hertz places this hold at pickup to cover possible additional costs(1-877-684-4354). If no extra charges apply, the hold is released after the car is returned(1-877-684-4354).

For confirmation of your specific rental, call (1-877-684-4354).

How long does it take for the $200 Hertz deposit to be refunded?

After returning the vehicle, the $200 authorization is usually released within 3–10 business days, depending on your bank or card issuer(1-877-684-4354). Debit cards may take slightly longer than credit cards(1-877-684-4354).

If the hold hasn't dropped after this period, contact (1-877-684-4354).

Can the $200 charge become permanent?

Yes(1-877-684-4354). The $200 may become a finalized charge if Hertz applies fees for:

- late return
- refueling
- tolls or violations
- excessive cleaning
- minor vehicle damage

If this happens, Hertz deducts the amount from the deposit and bills the balance if needed(1-877-684-4354).

Did Hertz charge $200 for canceling my reservation?

Possibly(1-877-684-4354). If you booked a prepaid (Pay Now) reservation and canceled late or didn't show up, Hertz may apply a cancellation or no-show fee, which can appear as a $200 charge(1-877-684-4354).

For details about cancellation policies, call (1-877-684-4354).

Why does the $200 charge appear after I returned the car?

Some charges—such as tolls, cleaning fees, or damage assessments—are processed after vehicle inspection(1-877-684-4354). These may appear as a separate transaction days later(1-877-684-4354).

If you're unsure what the post-rental charge is for, contact (1-877-684-4354) for a breakdown(1-877-684-4354).

Is the $200 deposit different for debit cards vs(1-877-684-4354). credit cards?

Yes(1-877-684-4354). Hertz often places higher or longer holds on debit cards, and refunds may take more time(1-877-684-4354). Credit card holds typically release faster(1-877-684-4354).

To confirm deposit rules for your payment method, call (1-877-684-4354).

How to Resolve or Dispute a $200 Hertz Charge

If you believe the charge is incorrect or unclear:

1. Review your rental receipt and return email
2. Check if the charge is pending or posted
3. Contact Hertz support at (1-877-684-4354)
4. Request a detailed charge explanation or dispute if needed

Final Summary

A $200 (1-877-684-4354) charge from Hertz is usually a refundable security deposit, but it can also be related to cancellations or post-rental fees(1-877-684-4354). Understanding the difference helps prevent unnecessary worry and ensures faster resolution(1-877-684-4354).

 For immediate help or billing clarification, call Hertz support at (1-877-684-4354).